Medical Mutual to Host Take Action on Tort Reform Workshops in August

Medical Mutual Insurance Company of North Carolina will be offering eight workshops across the state entitled Take Action on Tort Reform. The free workshops, which are open to all physicians and practice administrators, will be held from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. in each location and will include a complimentary meal. Physicians who participate will receive two hours of Category I Continuing Medical Education credit. Guest speakers will include MMIC Chief Executive Officer Dale Jenkins, Senior Vice President/General Counsel David Sousa, and Political Consultant Chuck Fuller of The Results Company. The following is a list of the dates and their locations:

August 10, Parkway Inn Gateway Conf. Center, Hickory
August 11, Holiday Inn Bordeaux, Fayetteville
August 12, Adam's Mark Hotel, Charlotte
August 17, Holiday Inn SunSpree, Asheville
August 18, North Raleigh Hilton, Raleigh
August 19, Four Seasons Sheraton, Greensboro
August 25, Hilton Greenville, Greenville
August 31, UNC-W Executive Development Center, Wilmington

Save-the-date postcards are going out to physicians' practices and will be followed by registration materials. Those interested in participating must pre-register to allow for proper meal counts. Questions should be directed to Carol Dorn Sanders, MMIC Director of Communications, at carol.sanders@mmicnc.com or via phone at (800) 662-7917.
